

Social and Personal

The smart world of Richmond turned its footsteps yesterday toward St. Paul's Church where at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Grace Elliott Shields and Mr. Thomas Henry Russell, of New York, were wedded, the Rev. Dr. Robert Strang performing the ceremony.

The church was decorated in stately palms, southern smilax and white lilies. The music included the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and the three or four elegantly dressed people who witnessed the nuptials gathered the occasion one of the most brilliant of the season.

The bride came in with her maid of honor, Miss Anne Lee. She was exquisitely gowned in an imported lace robe over billowy ruchings and plaitings of chiffon. Her veil fell in graceful folds and was worn with a coronet wreath of gardenias. The same fragrant blossoms showed in the make up of her bridal bouquet, fringed with lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was in violet crepe de chine, with a garden hat wreathed in violets. She carried an armful of pale purple lilies.

The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Shields, Miss Bessie Smith, Miss Ellen Bagby, Miss Lily Hill, Miss Elizabeth Weddell and Miss Maria Mosely were in charming frocks of white silk mull, white lace hats, and had bouquets of white lilies.

Mr. Russell's best man was Mr. Paul Fuller, of New York. The groomsmen were Mr. Leonce Fuller, Mr. Jasper Stand, Mr. Henry Sewall, of New York; Mr. Preston Witherspoon and Mr. William Parrish, of Richmond, and Mr. Lawrence Smith, of the University of Virginia. The groom and his attendants wore gardenias as boutonnieres.

Following the ceremony was a reception and wedding breakfast at the Chesterfield. Mrs. Grace Elliott Shields, the bride's mother, who stood with the bride and groom to welcome the guests, was elegantly attired in black silk net with an over drapery of embroidery in silver, outlined with jet sequins. Her hat was trimmed in black and silver and her flowers were white violets.

Table decorations were in white lilies, maidenhair ferns, candelabra and white wax tapers. In addition to the bridal party, those present were Mr. Percy Jones, Mrs. T. Russell, Mr. Alex. Mosely, Mr. Gray Mosely, Mr. and Mrs. Wolford Reed, Mrs. Otto Theodore Hess, Mr. Carrington, Mr. Talbot, Mr. L. Meredith, Miss Lizzie Weddell, Miss Bessie Smith, Mr. T. Smith, Mr. Henry Carrington, Mr. Charles Talbot, Miss Marianne Meade, Mr. William Habington, Miss Maria Mosely, Miss Ellen Bagby, Miss Margaret Shields, Mrs. Smith, Miss Ethel Cummins, Miss Anne Lee, Mrs. McNut, Mrs. Hanson, Miss Urquhart, Miss Travers, Mr. Paul Fuller, Mr. Leonce Fuller, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Sewall, Mr. Rand, Mr. Mac Yarbrough, Mr. Preston Witherspoon, Mr. Palmer, Mr. Elmore, Mr. Jones, Miss Anna Morgan, Mr. B. Williams, Mr. B. Forbes, Miss Sophie White, Mr. and Mrs. Parrish, Miss Lina Shields, Mr. Fitzhugh Lee, Miss Virginia Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Cary, Miss Mary Hartman, Mr. Granville Gray, Miss Hattie Shields, Miss Evelyn Gordon, Miss Ethel Pace, Mr. Joel Ferrin, Mr. Lewis Brander and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell, after their wedding trip, will make their home at Short Hills, N. J.

Morrison-Jennings.
One of the prettiest of April home weddings was celebrated yesterday at 6 P. M. in No. 10 South Third Street, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Haynes, when Miss Emily Sublett Jennings and Mr. Clarence Lee Morrison, of Waterbury, N. J., were married by the Rev. Dr. Robert Strang, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The house and parlors were prettily decorated in palms and white flowers, with pink-shaded lights and pink tapers in silver and crystal candelabra. The ceremony was performed before an altar erected in the front parlor with a background of palms, and kneeling cushions covered in white. The bride's book, beautifully bound, with pen and ink beside it, lay upon a table in the back parlor for the signing of witnesses' names.

The bride wore pale gray crepe de chine, lace trimmed, a white and gray chiffon hat, with ostrich plumes in white and gray, and carried lilies and roses. She was given away by her father, Mr. William Leslie Jennings.

Mrs. Philip Powers, the bride's sister, was matron of honor in light blue crepe de chine, and a blue chiffon hat. Her flowers were American beauty roses. Mr. Philip Powers was Mr. Morrison's best man. A duo of pretty bridesmaids, Miss Alice Jennings, a debutante of this season, and Miss Ellie Montgomery, also a debutante, had attractive toilets of blue silk mull, picture hats and bouquets of pink tulips and maiden hair ferns.

The ceremony was followed by an informal reception, attended by immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. Mrs. George A. Haynes, who received, with the bride and groom, was charmingly gowned in gray crepe de chine, trimmed with duchesse and rose point lace.

Mrs. B. W. Jefferson, of West Point, Va., the aunt of the bride, was in black point d'esprit, reffered with touches of white.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison left after the reception for their future home in Waterbury, N. J., accompanied by the warmest good wishes and congratulations of their many Richmond friends.

Mrs. Morrison is a great favorite in Richmond society and received a great many beautiful wedding gifts as an evidence of the high esteem in which she is held. Mr. Morrison, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Morrison, of Coldwater, Mich., and who is now government inspector for the New York Shipbuilding Company, at Camden, N. J., is also well and most favorably known in Richmond.

Personal Mention.
Miss Bessie Hammond will be a member of a party which Miss Anne Fletcher, director of classes at the Richmond Art Club will take abroad this summer.

Miss Hammond will sail from Philadelphia May 21st, and will not confine herself altogether to the party itinerary, as she will tour England, remaining some time in London, and then travel through Germany and into Italy, where she will visit all the principal Italian cities, Rome, Naples, France and Venice. She will afterwards return, for five months' art study, to Paris before coming home.

Mr. John Sidney Davenport will be at home to his friends Thursday next, April 14th, from 5 to 7 P. M. The at-home cards were sent out with Mrs. Davenport's wedding invitations.

The Kate Wheeler Whist Club will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with Mrs. Irvin Watkins, at the Langley.

At the meeting of the Milton C. Work Whist Club yesterday afternoon, the highest score north and south was made by Mrs. James Keith and Miss Florence Tyler; east and west by Mrs. Isiah White and Mrs. John Hunter.
